REVIEWS & ACCOLADES

2021 Blueblood

Blaufrankisch

HAHNDORF HILL
ADELAIDE HILLS

Berlin Wine Trophy, Germany - 2025

GOLD MEDAL

The Real Review, Huon Hooke - JAN 2025

92 POINTS

“Deep, bold red with a trace of purple lingering; there are blackberry, chocolate, vanilla and subtle mint aromas coupled with other dried-herb traces, nothing green or unripe, while the tannins are abundant, powdery and drying, with a lingering underlying fruit sweetness. A serious red wine which is ageing gracefully”

James Halliday Wine Companion, Mike Bennie - NOV 2024

92 POINTS

“Quite a sappy, concentrated red wine with satiny tannins shaping inky, concentrated, slick concentration. Dark cherry, cherry cola, forest berry compote with licorice, hot spice and woody earthiness in tow. It does all this well. Reasonably balanced, a little breathy but we’re cool with that, too. Bolder red, with heaps of interest.”

