3 TROPHIES: BEST WINE OF SHOW, BEST WHITE, BEST OF THE REST

JamesSuckling.com, Ryan Montgomery - AUG 2025

93 POINTS

“Generous aromas of white peaches, yellow apples, white pepper, fresh herbs, guavas, Asian pears, slate and spices. The palate is plush and rounded, with a slight phenolic grip, fresh acidity and a mineral-edged and well-balanced finish. Nicely constructed, with lovely purity. Drink now. Screw cap.”

The Weekend Australian Top 100 Wines 2024, Nick Ryan

“Larry Jacobs and Mark Dobson are stepping away from Hahndorf Hill and into well-earned retirement, so it’s timely to acknowledge the role these two played in pioneering gruner veltliner in this country. This wine validates their unwavering faith in the variety. It’s packed tight with pear skin and grapefruit, a touch of quince too, and liberally sprinkled with peppery spice. It’s a delicious legacy to leave.”

The Real Review, Huon Hooke - DEC 2024

92 POINTS

“Soft, linen-like aroma, a hint of gardenia, all very attractive; the palate fresh and clean, with drying acidity and a trace of tannin at the finish. It’s firm and dry and appetising, and would be good with food because of its structure and grip. An appealing dry white with length and backbone.”
